Proposition:

4. Atonement for sin actually satisfies the Justice of God: vs 10 It actually turns God’s just and Holy anger away.

Implications considered—Toplady—John Owens
 - a. The triumph of the atonement in his name: Character of God
Ex 34:5-7/the offense committed/the atonement as the solution/the transfer of the sins—to HIM!
 - b. The triumph of the atonement in His work of justification: 2 Cor 5:20-21
The offense of sins against God placed upon Christ, are now satisfactorily punished, atoned, propitiated, put away. 1 Pet 3:18—We are coming to God!
 - c. The triumph of the atonement for the covenant: This is a salvation based upon covenant. Between a covenant God and a covenant people.
Lev 16: 5-8/Heb 10:16-18 (Father) Heb 9:22/Lk 22:20 (Son) Ezek 36:27/
(Spirit) John 10:15-17
 - d. The triumph of the atonement in the soul: The Spirit must save;
The inheritance applied. Salvation it self, regeneration itself is an evidence of the triumph of the atonement. John 12:31/Rom 5:9/Job 33:15-30
 - e. The triumph of the atonement for the gospel: The efficacy of the proclamation of Christ is because of the atonement accomplished. Mt 28:18-19/Rom 10:17/1 Cor 15:1-4
